

Bunbury Mill

Still milling after 175 years

The mill is running sweetly and efficiently after the extensive maintenance work we carried out last winter. The 2018 season is well on the way now, with over 1600 visitors having come to the mill already this year. Here are a few highlights from our activities so far:

We enjoyed our day at the Nantwich Show on 25th July, and were rewarded by being designated the Best Stand in the Countryside Pursuits area.

Our resident moorhens have successfully reared TWO broods on the concrete sill of the mill sluice.

As well as our regular Sunday openings, we're running a busy programme of schools visits, combining a tour of the mill with activities such as bread making, pond dipping, and model construction.

We have again been pleased to welcome several vintage and veteran car and motor cycle clubs to the mill - here are the Alvis Club (plus the odd 'stranger')

Forthcoming events: Thursday 23rd August Teddy Bears Picnic
Sunday 9th December Father Christmas returns to the Mill

Judy's Arts and Crafts group continues on the first Tuesday each month, with the possibility of extending to the third Tuesday as well.
