Our volunteers have been busy across the winter months. We now have a new Bug Hotel and to help people appreciate the lovely woodland area behind the visitors centre there is now a new path laid to take you round the perimeter and past the dipping ponds, hedgehog dens and other wildlife havens.

Lots of hands-on activities for children and adults alike on our Mill tour. Have a go with the Roman Quern. Operate our exciting sack hoist. Start the huge 10-ton Water Wheel and use the 100-year-old Wincnower.

It's been great to welcome 2 Primary school visits already this year. Charles Darwin from Northwich and Ysgol San Sior from Llandudno, they all had a fabulous time learning about what life was like before iPads were invented!

Fancy being a volunteer at Bunbury Mill?

If you want a challenge and you think you can help, why not pop down to the Mill for a brew and a chat any Wednesday between 10.00am & 12.00 noon. It's where we work, learn, teach and generally have a good time. Any background, any skill set, all you really need is enthusiasm. We're a friendly bunch and you even get a free coffee, biscuit and sometimes even cake. Contact us at info@bunburymill.com or just pop down

We are open each Sunday 1.00pm - 5.00pm and we run guided tours which last for approx. 45 minutes, and cover the history and running of Bunbury Watermill.

If being a tour guide appeals, full training will be given and when you feel confident enough you will join our bank of guides that cover the Sundays through to mid October. The time commitment is what you are able to give, even if that's just one Sunday a month.

So if you have an interest in local history, in watermills or just have the gift of the gab and enjoy talking to folk, then why not get in touch with us to see what's involved, and whether this might be something for you.

Rain or Shine Theatre Company have provisionally planned to return to Bunbury Cricket Club in summer 2024, with their comedic take on Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest".

These events have run for the last few years now, and they always prove a hit.

The date and admission fee will be confirmed nearer the time, so please check their website for updates.
